

U-Source FAQ

- What does it include?
 - U-Source is a six-week flexible program dedicated to developing you professionally. Over the course of the program, you will hear from leaders in the following areas:
 - Resume writing
 - LinkedIn
 - Interviewing
 - Time Management
 - Work/Life Blend
 - Throughout the U-Source program, you will work one-on-one with these leaders, as well as your MomSource Ambassador, to ensure you are fully knowledgeable and confident in each of these areas.
- How much does it cost?
 - U-Source is a one-time fee of $295.
- Who is eligible?
 - Any applicant that meets the following criteria will be eligible for consideration for the U-Source program:
 - Hold a bachelor's degree
 - Mid-Career/ Working
 - Full-Time
 - Part-Time
 - Identify as stay at home individual. Planning on returning to work in the near future.
 - In transition/ Considering Transition
 - Committed to personal professional development
 - Desire to improve work/life blend
- How many applicants are chosen for each program class?
 - We will select a group of 10 applicants for each graduating U-Source class.
- Who are the mentors?
 - There will be separate mentors for each group session that we will hold.
 - U-Resume: Sara Hutchinson
 - U-LinkedIn: Kim Seals
 - U-Interview: Kevin Hooks

- U-Time Management: Samantha Lane
- U-Work/Life Blend: Courtney Jones
- U-Did It: Courtney Jones
- What will I receive at the conclusion of the program?
 - At the conclusion of the U-Source Program, you will receive a certification of distinction, stating that you have completed the U-Source Professional development program. You will also receive credentials for your LinkedIn profile, indicating your completion of the program. Following the U-Source Professional Development program, you can expect to have a competent and professional resume, a thorough LinkedIn profile highlighting your accomplishments, and helpful feedback regarding your interview abilities.
- Does this mean I'm guaranteed a job?
 - The completion of U-Source does not automatically guarantee you a job. It does, however, give you the tools that you need to stand out among other potential applicants and candidates in your field. With a competent resume, an informative LinkedIn account, and so much more, you will be more than ready to tackle your upcoming opportunities head-on.
 - A benefit of U-Source that MomSource will provide to you is priority placement in our job opportunity portal. When jobs become available on our website, we will place you high on the list for any job you are interested in.
- What's the time commitment?
 - U-Source is a 6-week program. Each week you will participate in a one-hour group Skype session, as well as a 30-minute phone call with the mentor of that week to answer your questions and walk you through things like resume help, perfecting your LinkedIn profile, prepping for Mock Interviews, and so much more.
- When will the sessions be held?
 - Group webinar sessions will be held each Tuesday from 11:30 A.M. -12:30 P.M. Follow-up one-on-one phone calls with the mentors will be scheduled individually to accommodate your weekly schedule.
- Can I participate virtually?
 - Yes! The entire U-Source program is a virtual program, which means you can participate from virtually anywhere!
- How many people are selected?
 - There will be 10 applicants selected for our first class of U-Source graduates.
- What if I miss a session?
 - Have no fear! If you miss one of the scheduled group sessions, we will record the session for you to watch on your own time that week.
- Can I get a refund?
 - Unfortunately, we cannot offer refunds due to the financial obligations to our expert mentors. However, we can offer makeup sessions within 30 days of the session in the event that you are unable to attend a scheduled one-on-one session.